CHICAGO RIOTING RESUMED; Two Reported Dead Over 100 Wounded

Chicago, July 28.—Two more negroes were shot and seriously wounded today in the race riot that for fifteen hours has made a battlefield of the negro district on the South Side.

Additional police gunfire has been thrown up through the district. Casualties of the rioting thus far are one negro boy known to be dead, one white man reported killed and more than 100 wounded.

Augustus Struhsaker, accused of hurling a brick which struck a negro boy swimming in the lake and caused him to drown, was arrested.

As news of the trouble at the beach spread, mobs of whites and blacks quickly formed and scores of whites hurried and a few shot fired resulted. Police authorities threw tear gas into the district and early today law enforcement was restored.

For more than two miles along the lake shore there is a shivering black used by whites and negroes. By common consent a section of the beach is used by negroes.

Thousands men, women and children sought relief from the heat at the beach. Two negroes, according to the police, invaded a section reserved for whites. Two white men told them to leave and when they refused there was a fight.

COOL SHOWERS FORECAST FOR TONIGHT

Boston and Florida, for First Time in 47 Years, Have Equal Temperature in One Day

For the first time in 47 years—since 1872—Boston today found itself equalling Florida temperatures for the same day in the early hours at 85 degrees, and then climbing up to 91 at 10 o'clock, and that by only two degrees.

Only at Key West, 2,000 miles south of Boston, was the temperature higher at 8 o'clock, and that by only two degrees, 87.

Even at Tampa, Florida, where the reputation for blistering heat is proverbial, it was but 76 today, four degrees cooler than here, while at Pensacola, it was 4 degrees cooler, and Jacksonville 2 degrees.

At New Orleans, also another scorching point, it was cooler by two degrees. Today the three highest points in temperature throughout New England were at Boston, Hartford, Conn., and Concord, N. H., each at 86 at 8 o'clock.

But, clear up. For according to Local Forecaster J. W. Smith, you may have to take out your raincoat and umbrella before the day is much further advanced. For, he says, there may be heavy thunder showers with consequent drop in the temperature, insuring a period of cool, delightful sleep.

Throughout the entire country temperatures were early today about the same as far as Nebraska. At Omaha it was 85, as in Boston. With the exception of the storm, however, the temperatures again dropped. Pickering, Neb., 82; Lincoln, 81; South Dakota, 81; William, North Dakota, 81.

Temperatures in the North-west are quite moderate, the coolest being at North of Montana, it is 84.

MELROSE HIGHLANDS MAN IS HIT BY TRAIN

A large number of early morning commuters today saw 71-year-old Charles H. Dean of No. 37 Franklin street, Melrose Highlands, fatally injured by an inbound Boston & Maine train. Mr. Dean was hit as he crossed the tracks at the Franklin street crossing near Melrose Highlands, just as the 8:05 train from that station was pulling out. He was thrown to one side of the tracks. The train was stopped at the crossing. Mr. Dean was taken to the hospital, where it was found that he had sustained a fracture of the skull and could not live.

OFFICERS Punish Undertaker for Mixing Bodies in Graves

Indiscriminate burials in which bodies were placed in graves other than those selected by relatives, while two bodies were sometimes placed in one grave, resulted today in the announcement of the revocation of the license of Undertaker Frederick H. Marks of No. 1666 Washington street, doing business under the name of Ellis-McCleary.

Health Commissioner William C. Woodward, who made the announcement, said he would not recommend prosecution as there is no statute covering Marks' act, but declared the case to be irresponsible.

The discovery of Marks' act, disclosed in a report similar to that which was found in a Portuguese cemetery in New Bedford, following the influenza epidemic.

According to the health commissioner, Marks had been in the habit of burying bodies wherever he saw fit. On one occasion he received money for a grave, and the body went into Parker Field. These bodies have been dug up and reburied in their proper places.

When the body was taken to the cemetery it was placed with other bodies. Marks told the health commissioner that he had been in the habit of burying bodies wherever he saw fit.

ARRAIGN TWO YOUTHS IN DRUG STORE ROBBERY

Two youths were arraigned before Judge Perkins of the Brookline Court today, charged with breaking into and robbing the Legerist drug store at No. 19 Harvard street last night. They gave their names as Harry Norman, sixteen, of North Street, East Boston, and Richard Henry, eighteen, of Park street, East Boston. Their cases were continued until Tuesday.

WIDOW DISCLOSES ACTION

The matter was first brought to the attention of the health department by Mrs. Alice (Gibson) Marks, according to the health commissioner, that her husband died on Oct. 19, 1918. The widow told the commissioner that she had made an agreement with Marks under which he was to bury the body in the Calverton cemetery and to furnish a grave site for that purpose.

When the body was taken to the cemetery it was placed with other bodies. Marks told the health commissioner that he had been in the habit of burying bodies wherever he saw fit.

TURKS ROUTED, 1,500 KILLED OR WOUNDED

By International News Service.
London, July 28.—Fifteen hundred dead and wounded Turks were left on the field after two clashes with Greek patrols near Smyrna and Aidin, in Asia Minor, said an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Athens today.

The reinforcements were rushed up when the fighting began.

There have been numerous clashes between Turkish and Greek troops in the villages of Smyrna and Aidin since the Greeks were landed on the coast of Asia Minor.

The order affects ten men, of whom 2, 1, 4 and 5. They have been employed in a regular commission and have been used to keep up the sale of drugs, illegal sales of liquor and immoralities.

The men themselves are indignant at the abolition of this squad, which they say works a great injustice against many of them. They are contemplating sending a delegation to ask Commissioner Curtis to restore the service.

WRITER'S Wife Chances Admitting Manslaughter In Boy's Death

Pittsfield, July 28.—A sentence of one year at hard labor in the House of Correction was imposed today on Mrs. Gladys C. Dunn, wife of J. Allan Dunn, the author, for the shooting of her only child.

Mrs. Dunn, whose breakdown last week halted her trial, smiled when sentence was imposed, a short time after she had changed her plea to guilty of manslaughter.

The woman, who was extremely calm, conferred with her attorney in private, and was then turned over to the custody of Sheriff John F. Nicholson of Berkshire County. Her sentence begins at once.

Mrs. Dunn may serve only six months of her year's sentence. This was stated by Attorney Cassidy to the counsel for the defense. This practically means a sentence of six months, said Mr. Cassidy.

Mrs. Dunn, looking but little the worse for her experience of last week, appeared at the opening of court with her husband, and took a seat beside him outside the counsel rail. Attorney John F. Norton then notified Judge Nelson Brown that his client desired to change her plea from not guilty of second degree murder, in causing the death of her three-year-old son, J. Allan, Jr., a plea of guilty to manslaughter, was then entered.

District Attorney Ely next arose and in a short speech said that Mrs. Dunn was not normal at the time of the alleged crime, and that sympathy for her was justified. Nevertheless, he said, justice must be done.

"TRADESMAN" SAYS ELLIOT
District Attorney Ely in his address to the court said:

"I think, all things considered, we may all be thankful that with the filing of this plea the curtain has been drawn on the tragedy of the most pathetic in the criminal annals of this Commonwealth."

"No man could bear the weight of the awful thing which from the displacement of the scene of the chief witness at the opening of the trial was then entered."

OVERSEAS OFFICER DIES AS PLANE FALLS

Mineola, L. I., July 28.—Lieutenant Stephen B. Johnston, twenty-eight, of Ithaca, Texas, was almost instantly killed and Lieutenant Amos O. Payne broke his right hand when the airplane Payne was piloting hit 200 feet at Hazelhurst field today as they were circling for a landing. Johnston saw service overseas and returned only three months ago.

Former Republican Nominee Urges Ratification of Treaty and Covenant evaluation of a reasonable character adequate to our security, while would meet with ready assent and was establishing a condition of amity at the earliest possible moment," Charles Evans Hughes, President Wilson's Republican opponent in the last presidential campaign, stated in a letter addressed by him to Senator Hale, Republican of Maine, which was made public today.

Hughes declaration for "extraordinary action in response to a contribution from Hale in which the Maine Senator expressed the opinion that the United States "may safely enter the league" is the first

TEXT OF RESERVATIONS.
The four reservations proposed by Hughes follow:

"First. That whenever two years' notice of withdrawal from the League of Nations shall have been given, no provision for Article I of the constitution."

Second. That questions relating to immigration or to the imposition of duties upon imports, where such questions do not arise out of any international engagement, are questions of domestic policy, and those and any other questions which, according to international law, are solely within the domestic jurisdiction, are not to be submitted for the consideration and action of the League or of any of its members.

Third. That the meaning of Article XXI of the covenant is that the United States does not relinquish its traditional attitude toward purely American questions, and is not required by said covenant to submit its policies regarding questions which it seems to be purely American questions to the contrary, and that the United States may oppose and prevent any acquisition by any non-American power by conquest, purchase or in any other manner of any territory, possession or control in the western hemisphere Monroe Doctrine;

"Fourth. That the meaning of Article X of the covenant is that members of the league are not under any obligation to act in pursuance of said article except as they may decide to act upon the advice of the league council. The United States assumes no obligation under said article to undertake any military expedition, or to employ its armed forces on land or sea, unless such action is authorized by Congress, which has exclusive authority to declare war or to determine for the United States whether there is any obligation on its part under said article and the means of action by which such obligation shall be fulfilled."

The will of the late Mrs. Alice Emily Purson of Ipsham was disallowed by the Norfolk Probate Court, because Mrs. Purson had failed to attach her signature to the document and because only the names of two witnesses appeared while the law requires three.

GIVES UP $10,000 JOB FOR LOW-PAID COLLEGE POST

Would you give up $10,000 a year for an ideal? Would you sacrifice a position as vice-president of one of Boston's biggest firms for a professor's chair in a university at a comparatively meagre salary?

That's what Harry Richmond Wellman, vice-president of the Walter H. Lowmyer Company, is doing.

Why?

Because of the world war and its lessons! Mr. Wellman is leaving the thrice-o'-big business, with its great financial returns and prestige, for a chair in the Ames Tuck School of Administration and Finance at Dartmouth College. Here in the world war, which kept thousands of young Americans from the quiet of country college studies, the importance of a scientific continental war, carrying out young Americans from the quiet of college life, has been a great lesson. Harry Richmond Wellman doesn't look at it in that way. Through the war, he discovered that changing the slightly different way of the business in life, he says, and however, N. H. may be small, but there is no scientific question about it, and there will be less when it gets into action, he declares.

DIVIDENDS OF SATISFACTION. "Satisfaction," he is saying, in an interview with an American reporter, "I don't think I can have it. I think that I am sacrificing a big dividend for a small one. But I expect to be twofold happy in the new job."

YANKEES WIND UP WITH RED SOX TODAY

By NICK FLATLEY.

The Yankees, who have slipped back into fourth place in the A. L. race, play their final game of the present series with the Sox this afternoon, and then the winners, all-inclusively concerned in the pennant struggle, arrive. Though the New Yorkers are still very much in the game, they will have to show a better brand of ball than they have here to stick.

The longest part of the game stretches ahead and the flying teams from the far north will be in the line of battle on this section of the country. These Yankees have to take on all the best teams, and have been thought for a long time that they will be able to do it. They have been in the line of battle on this section of the country.

At present the Detroit Tigers are to be hitting the Yankees hard. The Yankees are getting some good hitting nowadays, and that, combined with the remarkable hitting strength, makes them a very tough club to beat.

ATTENTION IS GOOD.

The Tigers, by the way, got here tomorrow for a three-day stopover, which, if memory serves, will include one double-header. As the team is the most popular of any that comes to this part of the world, the crowds are assured. The attendance for this season has gone to prove that even with losing teams Detroit fans mean to have their baseball.

Saturday's big crowd of 15,000 or so was remarkable. The day of threatening weather, with a team that is down in the second division, but the fans show back out to see if Babe Ruth takes hold of one. While it hasn't been a remarkably good season for Boston in the way of victories, it has been a hard in the financial line. And the Sox after returning home have shown a somewhat better brand of baseball than they were in the north. The team pulled two of the close and made a pretty good bid to the game thing Saturday. Playing against the Yankees as they did against the Yankees, the Red Sox did not considerable figures in the race, even though not very directly in it.

MEASURER PICKED TO PITCH.

Paul Hunter was listed to get another trial today if the weather decided to be pleasant. Paul is a pitcher and his chances to see all the sport that he can in the big leagues. A month after he was either thrown out of the game, or at least out of the game.

Miller Hughes had just about decided to chase one of his southpaws after the baseball game, as his right hander had been hit pretty hard by the Sox. It has been whined around baseball that Hughes' arm is not in the best shape, and that the pitcher is showing all the effects of overwork early in the year. But those rumors concerning Hughes' arm, and this looked like Hughes' day to lose.
